THE SITUATION AT CINCINNATE. Our latest advices are contradictory of the intelligence we published Monday evening-telegraphed us from the Memphis Argus of Sanday -to the effect that a battle had been won in the vicinity of Covington by General KIRBY SMITH, on the 4th, and that on the 5th he had demanded the surrender of Cincinnati. The telegraph today brings us an article from the Cincinnati Commercial, of the 6th, which, although sensational, probably gives the correct position of his assistance, will yet enable him to accomplish to the mere will of the powers that be. all that has been prematurely announced.

The bombast of the Commercial, about the end is not yet.

AN OPEN CONFESSION.

One honest Federal editor may be named, in the genflemen who conducts the Chicago Times. He evidently views current events from a standpoint as unprejudiced as it is possible for a deveted constitutional Union man to attain in that section, and does not hesitate to give expression to his conclusions. In his issue of the 5th, with all the lights before him, he says unreservedly : " h is useless for the press to seek to disguise that which is apparent to everybody, viz , that our [the Federal] army have been very thoroughly whipped in Virginia, and compelled to report to the furtificulions at Washington for safety." "They are which they left last February."
